EVENT DETAILS

WUSATA® Africa Buyer Delegation to Gulfood 2026

Dubai, UAE | January 28–29, 2026

WUSATA® invites qualified Western U.S. suppliers to participate in the Africa Buyer Delegation at Gulfood 2026 one of the world's largest food and beverage trade shows. This activity will bring pre-qualified buyers from Algeria, Egypt, Morocco, and Nigeria to Dubai to connect with Western U.S. food and ingredient suppliers. The goal is to expand awareness of Western U.S. products in Africa and facilitate one-on-one, pre-scheduled business meetings during Gulfood.

Suitable Products

Consumer-oriented food products, dried fruit and nuts, ingredients, beverages, and dairy products.

Benefits of Participation

- Direct access to African importers and distributors from key and growing markets.
- Pre-scheduled 20–30-minute one-on-one meetings at your booth (for exhibitors) or at a U.S. Pavilion meeting space (for non-exhibitors).
- Maximize your Gulfood investment by connecting with buyers who are actively sourcing U.S. products.
- Build new market opportunities in high-growth regions of Africa.

Why Africa?

Africa represents a rapidly growing, opportunity-rich market for U.S. suppliers. By engaging with importers and distributors from Algeria, Egypt, Morocco, and Nigeria, companies can diversify their export portfolio and tap into demand for high-quality Western U.S. food products. Gulfood's scale and buyer diversity make it an ideal platform for these introductions.
